

What ONE Can Do

A public forum on Global Poverty and the United Nations Millennium Development Goals

Friday
November 2, 2007
3:30 – 5:00 p.m.

Ira Allen Chapel
University Place
Burlington, Vermont

Led by the Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church

Hear the first woman elected to head The Episcopal Church speak on the importance of the effort to eliminate extreme poverty and on the role of faith communities in addressing the eight goals agreed to by all 191 members of the United Nations in 2000.

Bishop Jefferts Schori will take questions from the audience after her presentation.

Donations to benefit the New Sudan Education Initiative welcome at the door. To learn about NESEI's Sudan school project, visit www.nesei.org.

The forum is FREE
All are welcome

Tickets are available at:

St. Paul's Cathedral and Hopkins Bookshop
(2 Cherry Street)

The UVM Student Center
St. Michael's Student Center

The Peace and Justice Center

Or call 802-864-0471 to reserve a ticket for pick up at the event.

Sponsored by The Episcopal Diocese of Vermont

The Episcopal Church is a partner in ONE: THE CAMPAIGN TO MAKE POVERTY HISTORY www.ONE.org